Dear Sir,

I write this letter on behalf of Hurbert Dupigny to the Department of Justice for leniency on him. I do understand that Hurbert is held accountable for his actions. I know Hurbert as a boy, he had a difficult life. I knew this since I knew his mother. She was married and had five sons. She worked hard for her family and his father acquired property. However, the mother experienced a brutal family life with the children. She cried continuously during church services. His father abandoned the home which put the mother under pressure causing her to struggle more with the boys.

The boys became Latch key children, they were left by themselves as their mother struggled to work.

If given a second chance, I do believe he will reform. I beg for mercy for him. I think that if justice could see that it was the adult that failed him and should be held accountable. She did this with no help. She and the children were left destitute as a result of his father's abandonment. Consequently, the environment was created where the boys became prey to those who do not wish well for children.

Sincerely,

Marie Pierre

Hubert Dupigny

To The Honorable Judge: Jessy Furman,

I have known and grown up with my brother Hurbert Dupigny for 36 years, and he has always been a good brother and friend. I was troubled and surprised when I learned about my brother's recent case as he has always been a good person with morals. It is for this reason I am happy to write this letter of support in reference for my brother Hurbert Dupigny regarding this matter.

I understand the seriousness of this case, however I pray that the court will show some leniency. Hurbert Dupigny has always been an upright character in the community and for his own family. Hubert Dupigny is a source of help to his mother and father at the age they're at, always wanting unity and love for us all. He's been a right hand to our 76 years old mother and I wish he could do more while god still granted her health and strength for my brother to be a daily basic help. Herbert Dupigny has been a truly good brother, a son and father to his children.

Judge am asking for my brother freedom at the mercy of the court that I would commit to stick as a family to give all the assistance that I can offer to my brother Hurbert once granted his release. In addition to our friendship and family affiliation Hubert Dupigny is an upstanding member in his neighborhood offering help to countless people, rescuing animals in the street, and always willing to lend a helping hand. While it is unfortunate Hubert is in confinement I would like to plea to the Judge to have leniency having our beloved brother, father and son with the moral support of his families giving the freedom to be productive as we so dispartate for him to be apart of his children and all of us life once more.

Sincerely,

Herman Dupigny
